4 Declaration of a criminal conviction

To help the University reduce the risk of harm or injury to their students caused by the criminal behaviour of other students, they must know about any relevant criminal convictions that an applicant has.

Relevant criminal convictions are only those convictions for offences against the person, whether of a violent or a sexual nature, and convictions for offences involving unlawfully supplying controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking.

Please indicate if you have criminal conviction by ticking in the box Yes

Applicants who answer 'Yes' will not be automatically excluded from the application process. However, the University may ask for more information before making a decision.

If you are convicted of a criminal offence after you have applied, you must tell us. Do not send details of the offence; simply tell us that you have a criminal conviction. The University may then ask you for more details.

Application form – Notes for guidance

General

Before completing the form, please read these notes carefully. You should also read the current University prospectus and course booklet(s) relating to the course(s) for which you are applying in order to ensure that you are familiar with the curriculum and entry requirements. Your application form may be photocopied, therefore it is important that you write neatly using black ink or typescript. Many courses have a deadline by which applications should be received. Please consult course literature or the department concerned.

Section 7 Academic Qualifications achieved

Applicants with overseas qualifications should give details of the examinations taken as preparation for entry to higher education. Example are Higher School Certificates, Apolytirion, Baccalaureate, Diploma di Maturita, Examen Artium and Studentereksamen. Applicants with qualifications obtained in a language other than English should attach a certified English transcript to the form.

Section 11 Further Information

Enter any information to support your application. Admissions Tutors will be interested in your reasons for choosing the course(s), your career aspirations, relevant experience and information concerning your intellectual, social, sporting or other interests. You should give details of any non-examined subjects you are studying. If you have been out of education, please outline any relevant experience that may be considered in lieu of formal qualifications, either at home or in voluntary or paid work. You should explain any gaps or breaks in your career. If you are applying for deferred entry (a year beyond the next academic year) please explain your reasons.
